Soldier's Remains Arrive From France.

The remains of William M. (Jack) Whetstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hewey Whetstone, of the 6th district, who died in a hospital in France, Nov. 3, 1918, arrived here Sunday and were interred in the family cemetery near his home at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of friends and comrades, who gathered to pay a parting tribute to a young man who gave his life for his country.

Impressive and appropriate funeral services were conducted Rev. K. A. Early, pastor of the local Methodist church. Elder Marion Harris of Meagsville, closed the services with a brief talk.

The deceased was 21 years old and was a member of the Presbyterian church and was single. He was a high type of young manhood and his record in the arm and private life was above reproach.

FOR SALE—Splendid 5 room residence in excellent condition, well located. Reasonable terms. B. L. Quarles.

BETTER POSITION—BETTER SALARY.

You can qualify for a better position, you can make more money HOW? By taking the Draughton Training. Thousands have done this, thousands are doing this. Ask for Catalogue. Mention this paper. Address Draughton's Practical Business College, Nashville Tenn. Adv.

The Granville basket-ball team defeated the local here Saturday. A number of people were present and pronounced it one of the best games of the season.

Flavy Pate desires to announce that he is now with Joseph Frank & Son, Nashville's most up-to-date and complete stores for men, and would appreciate a call from his friends in Jackson County when they visit Nashville.

Mr. Pate was formerly with Petway-Reavis Co., and from what we can learn he was considered the best salesman they had, and the news came straight.

The following changes in residences in Gainesboro have taken place this week: Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Gaw have taken possession of their home recently purchased of J. B. Dudley in the east side of town, and formerly occupied by T. L. Gist and family. Mr. Gist is occupying the I. B. Pate property on Academy hill. Bayless Anderson and sister, Dorothy have moved from the Draper property to the Martha Johnson residence on the west side of town, formerly occupied by Dr. Gaw and wife.

J. E. (Dink) Tinsley, who has been traveling for the Zone Oil Company, in the state of Oklahoma for the past year, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Tinsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Selliers, of the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Grady Gore and Mr. and Mrs. Lee McCartney.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE.

I will, on the 26th day of November, 1921, at the store house of R. Patten Smith, in the 6th civil district of Jackson County, Tennessee, on the Gainesboro and Hillman road, and being the old stand where G. W. Gentry formerly sold goods, sell publicly to the highest and best bidder, for cash, the entire stock of goods, consisting principally of shoes, with few groceries, dry goods, hardware and general merchandise. Said stock of goods will be sold for the highest per cent offered for said stock, with same to be invoiced as soon after the day of sale practicable, inventory to be made on present prices. I will also offer for sale, to the highest and best bidder, separately from the above stock of goods, the book of accounts of the said R. Patten Smith, for cash.

Said sale will be opened at 12 o'clock M., and is made by me as Trustee in a deed of assignment executed to me by the said R. Patten Smith for the benefit of all his creditors.

This November 9th, 1921.

Caroline Ellis, Trustee.

The subject for Sunday night service at the M. E. church, Nov. 13th, is "Ten Reasons Why I'm a Methodist."

Rev. K. A. Early, pastor. Tell your friends and come out.

Criminal Court is in session here this week with Judge J. M. Gardenhire on the bench, and Attorney General J. R. Mitchell and his assistant B. C. Butler looking after the interest of the State. The misdemeanor docket has been disposed of and about sixteen law breakers have been placed in jail. The felony docket was taken up Wednesday and as there are several cases on docket it will probably be the middle of next week before the term is finished.

On solicitation of Prof. Cox, Judge Gardenhire adjourned court at eleven o'clock and went to the high school building where he made an interesting talk on armistice day.
